To Whom it may concern.

Since its inception in 1998 I have maintained a relationship with Rene Grossman and his company Nationwide Gutter. During that time NWG has installed gutters at 29 apartment projects I've built while working at 4 different companies, totaling nearly 9,000 units.

Throughout our relationship Rene and his employees have always displayed the utmost professionalism, courtesy and integrity. Their work has been performed in a timely manner and there have been no instances where additional cost above and beyond the agreed upon initial contract price was incurred.

I gladly provide my personal recommendation to anyone choosing to employ NWG on any future work.
